

McADOO'S NAME STANDS.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 20.—The name of William McAdoo will appear in the preferential Presidential primary in Georgia, April 20, it was indicated, unless he should specially request the State Democratic executive committee to remove it.

HAY IS WEDDING GIFT.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A load of hay was the wedding gift of Sir Ernest Paget to Coolidge, leader and Miss Phyllis Boret, of Surbiton. Leader being a trainer of race horses, found it very acceptable.

JANITOR CUTS OFF HEAT

AND THEN DEFIES POLICE

Thought He Owned Building, Say Tenants He Threatened With Gun—Surrenders.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Arthur Benice, janitor of an apartment house, who barricaded his home when police sought to arrest him and stood off a squad of policemen throughout the night with a shotgun, surrendered yesterday.

Police, armed with rifles and sheltered behind a barricade, were laying plans to storm the house when a number of newspaper men visited Benice to get an interview. They reported to police they had no trouble, and patrolmen then talked the janitor into surrendering.

Tenants of the building complained that Benice had asserted he was the owner of the apartment and had shut off the heat and menaced the tenants with a revolver. Benice told the police he had been under the delusion he owned the building since he suffered an attack of influenza in December.

SAY STEAMSHIP LINES FLEECE GUILLIBLE ALIENS

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The bureau of industries and immigration of the State industrial commission will begin an investigation today into charges that certain steamship agencies and foreign banks in this city have lured aliens here on promises of immediate passage to Europe and then "defected" them of their money.

The bureau, in announcing the opening of the inquiry, stated that sworn charges had been made against the concerns by Capt. Stanislaw A. Gutowski, assistant Polish immigration attaché.

Resident aliens have complained to the various consulates, it was stated, that when they arrive in New York to take passage for Europe the steamship companies delayed them in boarding houses operated by the agencies, and then fleeced them in converting American money into European.

SULLIVAN & Co. ASK FOR VOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY

A petition to be adjudged voluntary bankrupt was filed in the District Supreme Court yesterday by Sullivan & Co. through Attorney T. Morris Wampler, who stated the firm's assets amount to $373,927.65, and its liabilities at $640,310.93.

It is declared in the petition that John T. Dooling, assistant to the district attorney in New York, with policemen, unlawfully broke into the New York offices of Sullivan & Co. and seized certificates of stock worth $100,000 and other papers of value. Petitioners express the hope that all papers alleged to have been confiscated by the police will be recovered.

TRINITY COLLEGE GIRLS HEAR OF NEAR EAST NEED

The students at Trinity College were addressed by Mrs. Cabot Stevens, honorary director of the Near East Relief campaign, and Major C. S. Weston last night on behalf of the Near East drive. The young women were informed of the opportunities to help the cause and they promised to assist in the drive for funds.

Major Weston, who was with the Red Cross at the time of Field Marshal Allenby's campaign in Palestine, recited his experiences in that country.

Showing Springtime Millinery

Early—yes—but not too early for you to purchase a new spring hat, especially if you are tired of the one that has seen service all winter.

As a suggestion we mention these small hats that are so suitable for the windy days of early spring.

Made of visca braid or combinations of chenille, georgette or straw and georgette. Mostly all are turbans, although there are a few with helmet crowns and narrow brims.

In dark colors mostly. Trimmed with ribbons, fancy stitching and novelties.

Prices $10 and $12.50

Millinery Section, Third floor.

The New Tailored Waists Beautiful in Their Sheer Silkiness

These are the better tailored waists made of the most beautiful silks, many of them new this season—radium silk in seafoam shade, Doris Lace, etc. Most of these are in white.

Then there are the always popular silk pongee blouses, some in the quaint Buster Brown style, which is so becoming to some women and girls. The pongs are in natural color.

A few striped crepe de chine effects are also being shown.

Practically all these blouses have roll collars and turn-back cuffs, some of them in novelty styles. Large pearl buttons form fastenings.

Prices are $6.75 to $15

Waist Section, Third floor.

Nemo Corsets

As you doubtless know, the Nemo Corsets are made with patented features that are self-reducing. Special hose supporters and elastic inserts are used to assure extra wear.

At $7.00 and $8.50, the Nemo Self-Reducing Corsets are made especially for stout figures. Strongly boned and with reducing band over the abdomen.

The Nemo Kopservice Corsets have very low busts with elastic inserts at the front waistline, over the thighs and at the bottom of skirt in back, to control the excess of flesh through the hips. These come in white or flesh coutil. $6.00 and $7.50.

Lighter weight model is in low bust style with medium length skirt for the average full figure, $5.50.

Corset Section, Third Floor.

Crepe Kimonos $4.00

Made loose with kimono sleeves. Plain colors such as light blue, navy, old blue, lavender and pink. Trimmed with satin.

At $9.00 and $10.00, kimonos made of cotton crepe in loose or belted models. The belted style has a collar and vest effect. Kimono or large butterfly sleeves. Finished with satin ribbon. In light blue, old blue, orchid and rose.

$5.00 and $6.00 Models are of serpentine crepe in loose models with slash or kimono sleeves. With or without collar. Separate narrow belts. Trimmed with shirred ribbon and some with fancy embroidery stitching. In light blue, old blue, rose, pink or violet.
